

Ballet Teacher – Petits Pas Studio

About Us

Petits Pas Studio is a vibrant dance and theater school in San Francisco offering ballet, modern, contemporary, and theater programs for children and adults, along with themed camps, annual recitals, and special events such as women's retreats and dance-centered gatherings. Our mission is to inspire confidence, creativity, and community through the performing arts.

The Role

We are seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated Ballet Teacher to join our faculty. The ideal candidate will bring both technical expertise and a love of teaching, inspiring students of all ages and levels while supporting our studio's creative and family-centered environment.

Key Responsibilities

- Teach ballet classes for children (from age 4), teens, and adults, from beginner through advanced levels.
- Develop engaging lesson plan that combine technical training & creativity and fun.
- Create choreography for student showcases and annual performances.
- Provide clear and encouraging instruction that builds confidence and supports student growth.
- Communicate effectively with parents and families of young dancers.
- Collaborate with other faculty and staff to uphold the studio's mission and values.

Requirements

- Strong experience teaching ballet across a range of ages and levels.
- BFA/MFA in Dance or equivalent professional performance and teaching experience.
- Ability to teach 2–4 consecutive hours of ballet.
- Organized, punctual, detail-oriented, and responsible.
- Motivated, energetic, and passionate about teaching.
- Additional experience in pointe, contemporary, strength and flexibility, Pilates, or yoga is a plus.

Compensation & Schedule

- Competitive hourly rate, commensurate with experience.
- Paid training for the right candidate.
- Supportive, creative, and family-friendly studio environment.
